NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between John H. Oberly and M. C. Saunders, under the firm name of John H.
Oberly & Co., has been dissolved by mutual consent, John H. Oberly purchasing all the interest of M. C. Saunders in the Cairo Bulletin printing and book binding establishment, assuming all its liabilities and receiving all accounts due to said firm.
May 15, 1872. JOHN H. OBERLY, M. C. SAUNDERS.

THE BULLETIN.

The undersigned has purchased the half-interest heretofore owned by M. C.
Saunders in THE BULLETIN establishment and will hereafter conduct the business in his own name. His partner, residing at Memphis, Tennessee, could not contribute in any way to the prosperity of THE BULLETIN, and retires now that the undersigned may receive all the rewards his own labors may bring to him, and alone bear the burdens his ventures in business may entail upon him. The partnership, which has been entirely harmonious, is dissolved by mutual consent, but with regret, also mutual, that the interest of each of the partners should render dissolution necessary.

Heretofore the actions of the undersigned have been somewhat constrained in his business conduct by a desire to not stop beyond the wishes of an absent partner whose interests were at stake with his own; but now this embarrassment has been removed, and he will not fail to avail himself of the liberty brought to him by the consciousness that his own well-fare is alone at stake, to risk all he has in an attempt to make THE BULLETIN printing establishment one of the most complete in the State. He has already purchased very valuable printing materials—presses and type, and has built a splendid steam engine. He may now point to THE BULLETIN office with some degree of pride; but his efforts shall not be relaxed, if the business men and the good people of Cairo sustain him by a liberal patronage.

In a few days THE WEEKLY will be greatly enlarged and improved, and THE SUNDAY BULLETIN be made a well-come visitor to every family in the city.
Both these editions of THE BULLETIN will receive special attention, and will be, we have little doubt, acknowledged by everybody to be entitled to the support of every Cairo man and woman who takes an interest in the city and a pride in her meritorious institutions. JOHN H. OBERLY.

ZERO REFRIGERATORS.

It is useless to mention their superior qualities as they speak for themselves throughout the country. I manufacture everything in Tin, Sheet Iron, and Copper Ware out of the very best material, and at no cost in staining, and I have a larger and more complete assortment of goods than mentioned, than can be found in the city.
Country dealers will find it to their interest to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.
